C. G. Jung's Answer To Job: A Half Century Later

(Bishop, 2002) Theologians, such as Victor White, from the Catholic side (White, 1959), and Martin Buber, from a Jewish perspective (Buber, 1952), found much to criticize in Jung's attempt at the "psychization," so to speak, of the God image. Comments even from some of Jung's followers suggest a lack of understanding of what he was about.
